At Alice's childhood, on a boring winter afternoon, Alice dreams, that she's visiting the land behind the mirror. This turns out to be a surrealistic nightmare, with all sorts of strange things happening to her.

When Alice is become 19 years old and mother to attend a banquet, but found herself will be to marry him in front of many arrogant. At this time, she found a white rabbit, everything is like that a dream,so she follows the white rabbit ran into a hole, into the wonderland. A wonderful journey prelude.13 years ago, Alice came to this place, but now she doesn't remember. Here, Alice and those lovely old friends meet again .

The Rabbit is responsible of Alice following him and into Wonderland. He is the first Wonderland Resident Alice meets. In the book and movie versions, the Rabbit wears a waistcoat where he pockets his watch. His mission was to bring Alice to Wonderland, just like our mother, will bring us into this world.

Into the wonderland, Alice become big, become small, just like us can change ourself in various situations. Alice think this is only one of her dreams journey, but everything is so real,in the forest was a monster chasing, crazy run, she met helped her to defeat the monster of the Dormouse, met a Cheshire cat.The Dormouse frank and brave which become a friend to Alice and help her in danger. We are the same, will encounter such a can in time of danger to reach out and help your friends. The Cheshire cat is the only time in short tail cat disappear anytime. He is always with a calm, inviting smile to cover his timid personality. The cat first appeared in Alice was dangerous beast attacked, he helped Alice with ribbon wound. Alice took him to attend the "Mad Hatter" tea party, but timid he was in the "Red Queen" control the underground world betrayed friends. By "the Mad Hatter" accused the Cheshire cat finally to rely on their own ability and desperately the courage to win the respect of his friends. Just like in our life, always meet some people, you trust him, because he was afraid to betray you, some of which will eventually come back to you to help you, and the other is forever stranger.

The journey continues, she meet the Mad hatter, the impetuous "Mad Hatter" changing emotions faithfully reflected in his face and clothes, he has been anxiously waiting for the return of Alice, he always asked Alice "Why is the crow like a writing desk?" But Alice forgot about thirteen years ago. "The most special people are crazy" she just said to him. It can be said that he is Alice's friend, and perhaps he was in love with her, when other people do not want to believe her, but he still firmly stood in Alice side. In this story, he was brave, spare no effort to protect Alice. He for us, maybe is that no matter what will happen protect you, believe you, support you, in addition to parents who love you the most.

When she meet the beautiful white queen and she hated sister Red Queen, she finally knew that here the character and mission, she confronted with hitherto unknown challenge, slay the Jabberwocky, lead the underground world residents over the Red Queen's evil rule, restore wonderland. She needs a man alone to face, she was afraid, but in the end choose brave fighting.

One can imagine the ending, she is the victory of the battle. She thought it was a dream journey, now is the time to wake up, she said, I will not forget you, crazy hats and whispered in her ear, you will forget me. All around the virtual environment, turned into a wisp of fragrance, dispersed. She returned to the real world, refused to marry him, choosing to pursue her own ideal life.

Life is but a dream. Alice has her own thoughts on the future, on adult she trapped in the Vitoria times high society women, unable to find the balance between the expected of her friends and relatives in her dream. She never forgot this journey.

Into the wonderland, she finally found her own courage to face whatever will be happen, not bound by any people's expectations, to brave to pursue her own life.

On the way of life, we will meet all kinds of people, some are good, some are bad, whoever, they all will make our to grow up, remember those who give us help, forget those who bring us harm people, all the way to grow mature, experience the colorful world. The most important thing is not to lose our courage in the road.
