

Mockumentary – wearing real coat, tells the fictional story

If Woody Allen mentioned, first poured into my mind is: black-rimmed glasses, little man, nervousness, prudish, strange, thin old man. Last week, while watching Woody Allen's work in the classroom, I have always been plagued by a problem – what is a pseudo-documentary? Why Woody Allen likes to make Mockumentary so much? Next, I will take "chameleon" for example, and analyze the above problems.

GONGDAN 110110115

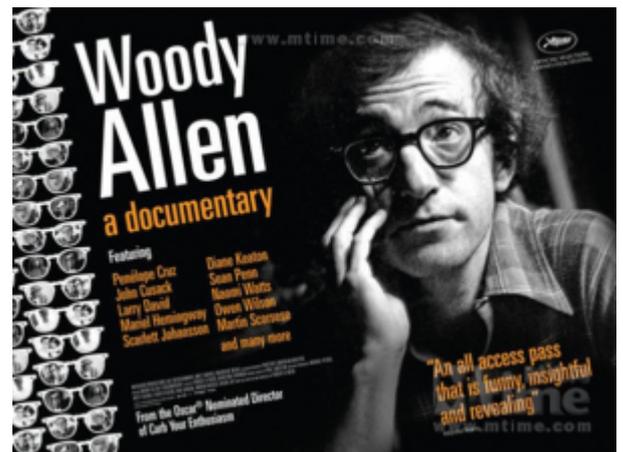

If you want me use a few words to describe my favorite director Woody Allen, it must be geeks, neurotic, old elf, prudish What he impressed me most was the one he refused to lead the world's lifetime Achievement Award, 13 nominations but did not participate. Second, he was a 78-year-old could have been directed and starred in the all-around filmmaker, basically every year a new movie release. Third, Woody Allen's private life is rich. Fourth, the film's pseudo-documentary style. But today I want from "chameleon" to talk about a pseudo-documentary in the works of Woody Allen movies.

"Chameleon" shot in 1983 in the form of black and white documentary fiction in 1928, tells the story of a biography about Zelig, he has an amazing ability, can always be like "Chameleon", as some people become close. By the Alan himself starred Zelig, and then-girlfriend Mia Farrow starred in the spirit of the physician to cure Zelig Eudora Eudora.

Mockumentary biggest feature is: a combination of real and fictional, using plausible picture, Paralanguage and viewers unfamiliar actors, or even trying to use a lot of simulation tools largest real three-dimensional to the audience, but actually is fictional. In the "chameleon" ,director woody allen used the old news, old photos, old recordings, made the old new photos, old new recordings , as well as to the negative scratches made to highlight the effect of twinkling old movies, etc. are intended to reflect reality. In addition, most of the story through photos and voice-over commentary to tell the story, in order to broaden the narrative, also interviewed Susan Sontag, Irving Howe, Saul Bellow and other modern intellectuals are making the audience believe that the film's three-dimensional sense and realism. In short, do the old videos, photos, coupled with a strong three-dimensional recording interviews, just hard to find, this story is completely fictional.

“Mockumentary”, also known as “fake documentary.” It uses satire or parody way to analyze large social events or issues, challenges people to the established fact of cognition, and the true concept of the documentary in the core proposition. In the “chameleon”, the true story through a series of seemingly triggered the audience to reflect on humanity. For example: The doctor responsible for medical Zelig unheard of that person’s condition, is calculated using the sensibility of his way to conduct a thorough study to identify themselves to the audience to think about this behavior. Besides, directed by clever use of irony way to analyze large social events or issues, challenges people’s awareness for the established fact, and for documentaries in the core proposition true concept. There are similar pseudo-documentary “The Blair Witch Project ‘attention is to pursue the myth of the terrible events experienced by the protagonist, the 1969 movie” Take the money and run “is intended to reflect the little things from life little sad helpless.

I believe that through the above analysis, we have a pseudo-documentary a general understanding, for me, I like the pseudo-documentary, because I think the pseudo-documentary is a valuable approach, an attitude. Although the story is fictional, but the movie has attempted to make the audience believe that the documentary form real images, the actual result is often the audience back to reality, causing people to think, have very far-reaching implications.

About vampire The twilight saga

QiMin Wu 120211408

If you're a vampire, it's all about you. Why is Edward Cullen obsessed to the point of erotomania by Bella Swan? Because she smells so yummy, but he doesn't want to kill her. Here's what he tells her: He must not be around her. He might sink his fangs in just a little, and not be able to stop. She finds this overwhelmingly attractive. She tells him he is the most beautiful thing she has ever seen. I don't remember Edward ever saying that to her. Maybe once. He keeps on saying they should stay far, far apart, because he craves her so much.

Should a woman fall in love with a man because he desires her so much? Men seem to think so. It's not about the woman, it's about the man's desire. We all know there is no such thing as a vampire. Come on now, what is "Twilight" really about? It's about a teenage boy trying to practice abstinence, and how, in the heat of the moment, it's really, really hard. And about a girl who wants to go all the way with him, and doesn't care what might happen. He's so beautiful she would do anything for him. She is the embodiment of the sentiment, "I'd die for you." She is, like many adolescents, a thanatophile.

If there were no vampires in "Twilight," it would be a thin-blooded teenage romance, about two good-looking kids who want each other so much because they want each other so much. Sometimes that's all it's about, isn't it? They're in love with being in love. In "Twilight," however, they have a seductive disagreement about whether he should kill her. She's like, I don't especially want to die, but if that's what it takes, count me in. She is touched by his devotion. Think what a sacrifice he is making on her behalf. On Prom Night, on the stage of the not especially private gazebo in the public gardens, he teeters right on the brink of a fang job, and then brings all of her trembling to a dead stand-still.

The movie is lush and beautiful, and the actors are well-chosen. You may recall Robert Pattinson (Edward) as Cedric Diggory, who on Voldemort's orders was murdered in a graveyard in "Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire." Maybe he was already a vampire. Pattinson is not unaware of how handsome he is. When Bella and Edward, still strangers, exchange stern and burning looks in the school cafeteria, he transfixes her with a dark and glowering – nay, penetrating – stare. I checked Pattinson out on Google Images and found he almost always glowers at the camera 'neath shadowed brow. Kristen Stewart's Bella, on the other hand, is a fresh-faced innocent who is totally undefended against his voltage.

Bella has left her mom and stepdad in hot Arizona, clutching a potted cactus, to come live in the clammy, rainy Pacific Northwest, home of Seasonal Affective Disorder. Her dad (Billy Burke) is the chief of police of the very small town of Forks, Washington (pop. 3,120). His greatest asset: "He doesn't hover." At high school, she quickly notices the preternaturally pale Cullen clan, who in some shots seem to be wearing as much Max Factor Pancake White as Harry Langdon. Edward is 114 years old. He must be really tired of taking biology class. Darwin came in during his watch, and proved vampires can't exist.

There are other strange youths around, including American Indians who appear not too distantly descended from their tribe's ancestors, wolves. Great tension between the wolves and vampires. Also some rival vampires around. How small is this town? The Forks high school is so big, it must serve a consolidated district serving the whole table setting. The main local Normal Kid is a nice sandy-haired boy who asks Bella to the prom. He's out of his depth here, unless he can transmogrify into a grizzly. Also there are four grey-bearded coots at the next table in the local diner, who eavesdrop and exchange significant glances and get big, significant close-ups but are still just sitting significantly nodding, for all I know.

Edward has the ability to move as swiftly as Superman. Like him he can stop a runaway pickup with one arm. He rescues Bella twice that I remember, maybe because he truly loves her, maybe because he's saving her for later. She has questions. "How did you appear out of nowhere and stop that truck?" Well might she ask. When he finally explains that he is a vampire, he goes up from 8 to 10 on her Erotometer. Why do girls always prefer the distant, aloof, handsome, dangerous dudes instead of cheerful chaps like me?

"Twilight" will mesmerize its target audience, 16-year-old girls and their grandmothers. Their mothers know all too much about boys like this. I saw it at a sneak preview. Last time I saw a movie in that same theater, the audience welcomed it as an opportunity to catch up on gossip, texting, and laughing at private jokes. This time the audience was rapt with attention. Sometimes a soft chuckle, as when the principal Indian boy has well-developed incisors. Sometimes a soft sigh. Afterwards, I eavesdropped on some conversations. A few were saying, "He's so hot!" More floated in a sweet dreaminess. Edward seemed to stir their surrender instincts.

The movie, based on the Stephenie Meyer novel, was directed by Catherine Hardwicke. She uses her great discovery, Nikki Reed, in the role of the beautiful Rosalie Hale. Reed wrote Hardwick's "Thirteen" (2003) when she was only 14. That was a movie that knew a lot more about teenage girls. The girl played by Reed in that movie would make mincemeat of Edward. But I understand who "Twilight" appeals to, and it sure will.

5 little tips: teach you how to be a super hero

Good news for all the super hero fans! Still worrying you can't find your unique "spider" or that "stars and stripe" uniform? No need to bother, here, we present you 5 little tips, and teach you how to be a super hero.

By: Yolanda Liu 110111112 Class 1

I bet you have all watched some super hero movies, and felt the adrenalin pumping so badly that all you want to do is to go outside find yourself a spider or sneak into some secret research centre and get some X-rays. Then chill out, found that it is quite impossible. Don't worry, now, 5 "useful" little tips will tell you, how being a super hero is that easy.

First, super-power, the most important aspect of being a super hero. They have super power to save people from danger, so, without that opportunity to be bitten by a mutant spider, what can you do? Well, it could be very easy. Go to a hospital and get yourself a doctor friend, beg him to take you to the pharmacy store and wander around, pretend you don't care and pick up some drug with complicated instructions that you can't understand a single word, watch how your friend respond, nervous? Great! Drink it with no hesitation! Can you feel the pain? That the feeling of super power. Still can't spin? Don't worry, you will discover your power at some point as you probably don't know what it is yet.

Secondly, name and uniform. Oh, that's the hard part, just take your time and find your name, as for a uniform, online shopping? Come on! You are a super hero, not some creepy transvestite! It's a way you can show off without using your super power! The key is special. Remember the "stars and stripes" uniform that Captain American wore? So shiny, even at night, still no enemy can find him, which is the power of uniform. So, the one and only uniform for you, I'm thinking, DIY, secret and special, what do you think?

Third, use your instinct and smell the crime. Here comes your stage, where there is a crime, there is a super hero. Listening to police broadcasts is good, but that's illegal, in order to be safer, what about being a policeman yourself? Always be the first one know of a crime, isn't that great? Or, much easier, what about hiring a criminal yourself? When you want an opportunity to show off in front of the public, make a call, and there is your crime! Little tip, don't hurt anyone.

Fourth, get rid of your family. Oh, I almost can hear you screaming, "WHAT THE HELL?" I totally understand, your only doing this because you are still normal person, when you become a super hero, you will find being lonely is god damn good! You are the only one who holds the power. And your family? They are still normal people, will be your burden. They want you to go picnic with them, spend Thanksgiving and Christmas with them, how could you waste your time on such meaningless activities? The world is waiting for you to save it!

Number five, I am running out of tips, sorry, because you see... Being a super hero is such a meaningless and low-probability thing. I am not saying that super hero shouldn't exist, they should, but only in comics and movies, they entertain us and complement our boring normal life, sometimes being a symbol that shows us a certain positive spirit, that's all. You can still be a super hero without that "awesome" name and ridiculous uniform, join the police or become a doctor, they are the real hero in real world.

Feeling all right? Don't worry, forget all those ridiculous tips and buy yourself some comic books, or, just go to the cinema, "The amazing spider-man 2" is on, I'm sure you will love it!

story replaced thirties Shanghai and Suzhou to Peking Opera stars Gu Zhengqiu aunt Gu Jianqiu and mentor wujilan as the prototype, the story of a married into wealthy geishas (Rie Miyazawa ornaments) and some family a cousin (WangZuXian ornaments)

plus a dan Wangfeng Mei and Yang Juan's cameo, the whole film can be said to be beautiful and desolate.

Tablets apparel fabrics by the Chinese Chuan Qi flows antique embroidered gown costumes and even thirties, despite rigorous textual,

Two heroines of clothing is in line with their role and match the personalities of their respective: Rie Miyazawa plays an absolute beauty

Faith from "the life of pi"

If we really even honest to discuss the ability of human desire, the most basic love and faith are lost, the film left what? To believe that the movie, drama, literature, with its unique charm, this is faith.

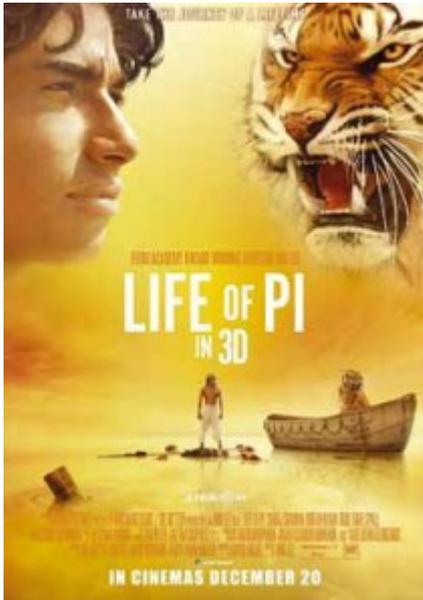

By xinying yu 134302116 class2

To see Ag Lee, all kinds of love hate entanglements. I think, one day, the world would be like miss Kubrick miss Ag Lee. Like "life of Pi", especially not forget that a tiger. To say goodbye, it is not turned back, the same I also cannot forget. Like Ag Lee the ease of a pen, which is full Oriental style opening of zen. Hollywood offers a huge canvas, Ag Lee above devoutly painted tiger in my heart. He makes people believe, belief is there, this belief has nothing to do with politics, even not as part of a religious, between the back and a tiger and don't look back.

We suspect that all good, and refused to acknowledge the cruel reality. So, there are people of faith, and the tiger are than we tend to happiness. This is a story about drifting, this is a story about faith.

"Life of Pi" hero, is a religious youth. On the way, a family moved to Canada cargo ship sank, killing all send a family, fled to the lifeboat. And sent both in lifeboats, a zebra, a hyena, an orangutan and a dog named "Richard Pare" adult Bengal tiger. The first three days in the lifeboat, hyenas killed zebra, killed orangutan, "Richard Pare" and kill hyena. Then, 17 year old boy and an adult Bengal tiger, 227 days at sea, made a fantastic drift process. School and the "Richard Pare" from each other, want to kill each other gradually Independent on each other, depend on each other, this is a miracle. Because of the "Richard Pare", send stick at the end; because of the belief that there was new, pie. In the film the end of the fast, and Pare finally landed, at the last moment, Pare did not look back, resolutely walked into the forest, sent regrator interfaith is not is not right or wrong, but requires commitment.

In the film, the young because of the existence of multiple belief reprimanded by his father, a variety of faith is not belief. From the nature of sense, the belief that everything is on the existence and uniqueness of the truth believe that does not doubt, is a personal reflection and choice basis for action. After watching the movie, many people struggle which is the true story, actually it is meaningless. Maybe Ag Lee didn't know the answer, as we "as far as I can see, its all, bring me the enlightenment", have a look what we can see how much.

Jeff Chang sang in his song, "I love you, is loyal to their own beliefs, loyal to love. I love you, is from the soul, from the power of life. In the distant place, whether you are the same, hear me shout, love is a kind of belief. Visible, the belief is very important, in our life so, let us respect. Mining more good movies together ~ good movie is not only let the audience the joy in watching, and want to get more after the movie.

Development of the Hollywood star system

Hollywood is the film factory, for the fans all over the world, it is the production of the world star. Star in the world is the representative of Hollywood, as Eiffel Tower is France's representative, the Great Wall is China representative. Talk of the Hollywood movies, always think of Nicole Kidman, Tom Curise, Elizabeth Taylor, beyond count stars. In fact, the star is not only a movie role, but also for the develepment of the entire film plays a very important role in.

By:shi mi Chen 134302124 class 2

So what exactly is the star system?Simple to say. In early twentieth Century the Hollywood star system is a gradually formed in order to emphasize the actor (star), while the film itself or other elements of the commercial method, in order to get more audience. In the period of the star system, the emergence of a series of star, such as the mysterious actress Greta Garbo, sexy star Monroe.

Take Marilyn Monroe for the example. Monroe, a familiar name, familiar image. Almost everyone in the world in the process of growth is more or less over her famous photo, and memories: that one is wearing a white dress on the streets of New York, the skirt is underground heat blew open the horn of the black and white photo; the face of the lens eyes closed, lips pursed; on the sofa bare a pair of legs..... These photos are no longer the photos, and to convey a special emotion, a pure and sexy. For generations, Monroe like these photos, is eternal.

In fact, stop all in our audience minds are from the packaging of the company. In order to make the image of the stars shining, have greater box office appeal, all the work of filmmaking industry must be around the stars to start. In fact, Marilyn Monroe is just an ordinary girl, she even for a living shooting in the conservative's naked. But because of this system, she became the many people heart of goddess. She starred in the film "the prince and the Showgirl" obtained the good box office. Not only is the company money, she won the Golden Global Award for best comedy actress. This is a win-win system.

The Hollywood star system makes Marilyn Monroe became a classic. Even if she had been dead for many years, her classic movies, she raised her white skirt sexy style, even every one of her face is still familiar. And Hollywood movies also resounded through the world. Until today, even though the Americans have left, through her, still can bring a lot of economic effect. Enough to witness the powerful of Hollywood movie star system.

Elegy and hymn warrior feelings reflect interleaving, express the heroin perseverance and indifferent. I can only use "greatly" four words to describe my admiration for Blackpole emperor this masterpiece of love; the complex but coherent epic, strict and precise shot and composition, seven knights, and some farmers are portrayed with penetrating, “rest” after Armageddon as grand, as the acme of perfection. In troubled times, the most difficult is to insist on, conduct does not fall, don't put out the fire. For most ordinary as me, just want to home entertainment, this sentence is somewhat proud and large but impractical, but to the Warring States period, Japanese samurai, it is need to face everyday mind exercise, can not avoid the conduct of its fundamental: insist on or give up, the poor also is rich, happy or otherwise?
