Youth is a heavy rain

Xiaoya Luo 120211324

Youth is a heavy rain, even cold, Also hope to pour it back again. Maybe I was too young to say this, but the youth has a special meaning for me. The film was about five senior high school students who fall in love with the same girl.

Kevin, Lance, Sam, Tom and Paul are best friends since junior middle school and they spend almost every day with each other. There is an open secret among them is that they all like the most beautiful girl in the class, Abby. Abby is class monitor who is ‘the good student’ in teacher and parents’ s eyes. Because of bad grades, Kevin is arranged sat in front of Abby. Something interesting is happen between ‘the good student’ and ‘the bad student’. After once Kevin help Abby and take the blame, Abby begin to help Kevin with his lesson by coercive? In which the other four jealous of him, but they have no idea about this. After they graduated from high school, Kevin and Abby keep in touch like a lover, just like. Because they never break it, the relationship between them like lover also likes good friends. But everything begins change after Kevin holds a free fighting game? Abby and Kevin lose contact. And then, everything becomes different. The friends of Kevin begin hunting Abby. At last, seven years later they are all being invite by Abby to attend her wedding. The groom is a man who they do not know. The five mans all think they may make trouble in the wedding, but after they see the smile face of Abby, they all give their best wishes. Though, Kevin does really want to hit the groom and kiss Abby.

Time like running water, whatever you want to catch it, its never stop. Like Kevin, he may knows they are fall in love with each other, however, because of his timid? He is fear that Abby refuse his express, so he lose Abby, youth as well. In the end, in my opinion, Abby is not only the goddess in their heart? Its youth, the best time in their life. They play basketball with best friends, they discuss the football star, and they cheat in exams?

This is youth, a crazy time, we may have the same thing, but we have different friends. In the winter vacation, I hold a Junior high school classmate party; in fact, I want to hold a party is more accuracy. Because I fail one half. There is forty student in our class, but only fifteen students absent. Everyone change a lot. A girl who is shy before, but in this party, she become more outgoing and easygoing. We chat a lot. A boy who is the tallest in our class, now he is taller than before, in my remember, he plays basketball like an animal, and which make us admire is that he getting into a Normal University, his dream is become a P.E teacher. We make a fun of he is play into university, is not it interesting? Of course, at the party, I meet my best friend (in the junior high school) Mary, who is my desk mate before. In fact, on the one hand, I am glad to see her, on the other hand, I feel a little embarrassed? Because we have touch with each no more than ten times after we graduated from junior high school?

Time flies, we become adult, we may have more freedom in money or make friends, we get a lot of things, at the same time, and we lose a lot like friends. But, as for me, I will remember the beautiful days, the good things and good person. Hey girl, be confidence and be brave□nothing will stop to waiting for you, we have to catch it if we need or love it.

Moonshine jungle on Mars

Different from other area, it is possibly that finding a worth-watching concert on mainland china is a little bit difficult. People living in other place may regard watching a concert as usual entertainment same like watching a movie or going to the KTV while many mainland people do not think so. Mainland china market is quite hard to attract talented artist to hold their own concert. Waiting for a long time, music fans would not miss the fancy concert "moonshine jungle" indeed, because it is a really precious chance to watch a charming live show.

YuHeng Zhang, 110909241, class2

Moonshine jungle tour in china was Bruno Mars's first time came to China. He is a popular singer-songwriter from America and has high popularity in the world including china. There were two stages in Shanghai and Beijing respectively.

Bruno Mars is a wide variety style singer including soul, pop, rock, R&B and others but I can say R&B is his mainly song style. Actually, R&B and rock plays an important role in Chinese pop music market in recent years. Affecting by the popular music style in western countries and the chief song-writer in china, Chinese pop music fans impact by these two music style deeply and this is possibly the essential reason why fans in china can easily accept and attract by Bruno's song.

If a popular singer want to explore one's market at oversea, cultural different may be the first factor want to consider. And moonshine jungle, became the next successful concert held by artist from other countries after 2012 maroon 5 shanghai concert and it had been 2 years we waited until Bruno Mars came. It is worth mention that, maroon 5, an American new rock band, their main music style is 'rock', which is also the mainstream music style in china. It seems that 'fashion music style' is much important than national culture in music area and Bruno Mars has a huge market in China. He wrote a lot of melodic songs such as 'just the way you were', 'when I was your man', 'grenade', 'runaway baby' and I guess the song 'when I was your man' is the most special one because it only use piano accompaniment, which is a huge challenge of singing skill.

Concert ticket is a decent standard to judge ones popularity. Actually, Concert ticket did not sold well in mainland recent years. Scalpers work with the organizer and ticketing network usually make a discount to attract people to buy their tickets but you can not count on scalpers if you want to watch Bruno Mars show!

Apparently, not each concert ticket can sold rapidly and even scalpers use mark-ups to earn money but all the ticket of Moonshine Jungle sold out in one day indeed. There was a hot blog about the dramatic concert ticket price on Sina Weibo a few days ago, toast saying that ‘guess what? Today I went to Leehom wang’s concert, the original price is 1680rmb, and I bought it 95rmb from the scalper! Feel jealous? Why you guys use 3000rmb to buy the 1680rmb ticket of Jay Chou concert?’. That’s not a joke, it is true. Among the Chinese singers, Jay Chou is the only one whose concert has the best attendance no one can exceed. But may be it does not mean Chinese young people are not willing to pay for music, because Bruno Mars, after Maroon 5, also gave a nice shot in mainland, proving that he is such a charming big star. Original price of each concert are quite similar, but after it control buy scalpers, the price differences became too exaggerate.

The two stages of Moonshine Jungle also held at indoor gym and it means that the amount of ticket was much fewer than outdoor gym. Fans was rush to purchase this concert ticket or they can just buy the pricey ticket. It sounds like a little bit crazy, but music fans would do it for Bruno Mars because his exclusive live charm!

After the concert, audience post a great deal of picture and many fans said that it was the best concert they seen in this year. At the opening of the concert, the curtain prints the scenery of real jungle made everyone feel like they are in it. The other fancy part is most of the audience heard each of the song on the set list before and these songs all written by Bruno Mars himself. However, compared with the other concert, it seems like Moonshine Jungle is quite short and it only lasting 80mins. May be this was the only part people feel no that satisfied but I guess time can not represent the quality of a show because if you are watching some weird and boring concert, three-hour is a plenty time can turn you into sleep or even the last subway back home is more worthy to catch!

Nowadays, a growing number of people from mainland travel Taiwan to enjoy the local beauty and taste the special foods. When I was a little kid, I have been to Taiwan. Since then, I have fallen in love with Taipei' food.

The most favorite food is Brown the meat bridge. Yanping North Road, Taipei City, “Ciro” ballroom to one side when night comes, you can see three operated by the brother and sister “bridge the meat brown.” Stalls before the patrons keep large Luokuang Li thousands of brown meat, one must be sold out at night. Brown meat over thirty years the bridge of history, it frees stuffing rice, not hard-health, not soft Lan pickled, steamed just right restricted level of attainment. A meat price is NT 80 Brown, when making a piece of pork, chestnuts one egg yolk half. Depends mainly on the taste of pork, a selection of meat, pickled material through the seasoning, and then by deep-fried, stewed and other processes, plumpness Suxiang. Then rice with soy sauce and a variety of flavors with spices fried until the semi when the brown leaves tied up and then wrapped in steaming hot.

Brown in an exclusive with sweet chili sauce is prepared, moderately sweet and salty, not spicy Ma, brown on the inside in the hot juice poured out, and immediately distributed the enticing smell, ate two bowls of pork ball field again, on top of the meal was supper.

The original net beef soup is also a good choice! Longshan Temple in Taipei night market is famous snack center. The central part of the night market, the “original net beef soup” sign, indicating that the property with the “land cow”, and must not use the imported cattle, succeeded in attracting customers. “Original net” is the juice, cooking is no longer on the water, drops of pure flavor, sweet delicate meat Tangxian the United States, is memorable.

“Boss, Pork, beef soup, a bowl of rice again!” Is almost uniform near the greeting diners. Fried beef with garlic, pepper and brisk flavor, and then became quiet on a water convolvulus. Several smoking hot “dog mother pot”, there is juice, and halogen, and add tonic, and some folks extremely busy, they have never been fewer diners. Eat up the most popular ingredient in Chinese medicine to the bullwhip, but it is more dry and hot in the tonic, they might eat to nosebleeds. Stewed tripe and tendon, in addition to decades of inherited “brine”, the medicine is not the time to add spice bag, adding Loach Qiang wire, green onions, basil, dipped in sauce, the most a pleasure.

Night falls, the night mark is gradually starting to come alive. I smiled, and tasted the Taipei’s night lifein the crowd.
