I like his prairie, so quiet, gentle, giving a warm feeling of tranquility. Unlike the kind of magnificent sea shock, the ups and downs emotionally sigh! Grassland scenery gives the first impression is refreshing! No large villages. Looking around the vast expanse of prairie at the foot extending to the end of the line of sight. The kind of smooth and soft curves. Makes you feel very comfortable. Run in the grasslands and the kind of contact with nature is no diaphragm and tolerance, so I love the prairie.See here is a blue sky blue beneath pure extreme, pure no trace variegated. The Hill in the distance is the same clear.The clouds in the distance like landed on the grasslands.Prairie put on a beautiful coat!Grassland scenery will bring relax to eye, the mood has also been a perfect release.This is heaven!With the clouds of heaven drift,prairie bright and alternate changing .The mood is like cotton candy,with the warm wind of the grasslands,rippling Gently.

Tibet has too much beauty, many artists and art lovers came to Tibet in search of inspiration, the purpose is to find look for beauty, pursue for beauty. As young artists Song Seng, like Northwest figures, five years in a row to the northwest, in his own words, he Qinghai, Tibet has formed a dependency snow style. He has an annual fee to the northwest folk songs, long train, live in a small hotel in the town, the harsh conditions just have fun. He said that as a painting of people, to the west will find that no matter where the landscape or figures, are particularly picturesque. Through the blue sky on the plateau, the complex ethnic costumes, children's eyes, until the butter lamps temple robes, Lama, and these things themselves in the eyes of painters treasures, to have the opportunity to be close to such a treasure, is my greatest pleasure.

Tibet, a place worth going.

Everyone don't know when to get the keywords if he was undercover. But the witty undercover, often after listen to others' description to gauge someone else's word, and then describe the same word, avoid exposing themselves. If the undercover do not, then it is easy for him to be found, and elimination. So kind to the enemy is cruel to himself. This is the rules of the game.

Who is undercover is a puzzle game, is a casual game .Next, I will tell you a story to share of our experience of playing this game at a time. We have four people at the time, then one of us is the undercover, the other three are all ordinary people. And then began to see Key words, this is a very important moment, because the word you get will determine if you are the undercover or not. Everyone is very carefully look at their keywords. For fear that their own key words be seen by other people. Then I began to worry about whether I'm the undercover, I get a keyword is 5. All finished seeing our own keywords, then we start to describe with a sentence. The cloud account first. She said: "a number." Then Xu Qianqian started narrative: "three plus two".

Listen to her, my heart steadfast. Because we get words are the same, so we are not undercover. Xu Haohao tells that: "one hand". let me explain. A hand has five fingers, so he said one hand ,we put Xu Haohao also ruled out for a while. Just left me, I said: "ten present two". Well, the first round of the narrative is done, and began to vote for your most doubt is undercover. Number of ticket! Albino culvert 1 votes, Xu Haohao 0 votes, the road cloud 2 tickets, Xu Qianqian 1 ticket. Clouds out the road. Pass! But we found the road after a showdown between the cloud is not the undercover! If another round out, without the undercover sting won.

Ok, just the three of us left: I, Xu Haohao, Xu Qianqian. We account again. I said: "the number of" total "refers to 5. Because there are 5 people" Xu Haohao said: "50 decimeter =what" Xu Qianqian said: "in a math problem, it will go into one". "She said" rounded "."Ok, and in the long-awaited time vote!

Xu Qianqian said: “be cast Xu Haohao bawcock!” Actually I also want to throw Xu Haohao. We began to competition:
“Xu Haohao”
“An albino culvert”
“The huge”
“Zi han “
“The huge”
“Zi han”
I for you! Xu Haohao lost! He is the undercover! The undercover lost! Oh, We take “5”, Xu Haohao undercover brand is “5.0”.

Overall, the game is quite nice, we can call good friends to play together.

Football makes you never alone.

Football makes you feel not alone.

The football team of Journalism Institution hasn't faced such difficult situation ever. When May arrives, the team are still suffering a great shortage of new members, which makes this year's School Cup matches not so easy for them to play. But they always hold a faith that they're never alone.

Jing Li 134102208 Class 3

In this year's School Cup, journalism football team has got one game win after one lose, they still just have a no more than 20 players involved but they're clearly positive and ambitious to strike forward like they always believes: they're alone.

As usual, the Journalism team should have at least 40 players training and playing football together, while last term, they had just got 4 new members in grade 1. Now the total number of players in the team is just less than 20.

“We should have been stronger if we have recruited more,” said Jia Jiale, goalkeeper who also plays for the school team. In most people’s eyes, journalism is never supposed to be a team that seems to have that tough situation.

“I remember the first year I got into this football team, there were almost 50 people in total! In those years, it’s even pretty difficult to divide fairly sides when we kick off in training,” said Zhou Yutong, the only grade 4 member in the team.

Why appears this situation? Some players thinks it is because it has been more and more difficult for middle school students who wants to enter our institution. It’s true that the entering scoring limitation has been adding up year by year, “for a school that focuses and is famous for art and journalism, higher entering scoring limitation means boy students will have less interests and possibility to consider going to this college after their entrance examination. “The next year may be harder for the team if we still fail to get more ‘fresh blood’, so in my best wishes, I’d like to see some changes in the further,” said Zhang Ze, grade 3, center guard.

That is just not big deal, however, in some big guy’s mind. Cui Jianqiang, the captain which is also in charge of the basketball team of our institution, believes that, if the whole team keep doing what they used to do and get more inspired, then it should not have so much problems for them to get good grades in this year’s School Cup matches. “Like the classic proverb in football world says, you’ll never walk alone. We have been training hard for almost one month, and some of us even have the extra training, all are just for one simple goal that, we want to win every game and approve that we are still invincible and competitive.

Traditional Chinese Food

Chinese are famous for their cuisine, especially the traditional food. There are many foreigners intrigued by traditional Chinese food.
Do you want to learn about this delicious food? I'd like to introduce some typical example of them to you.

By: Ke Cai 130111122 Class 2

Jiao zi (Chinese Dumpling) is one of the most widely love food in china. Every family in China eat dumplings almost every day of the Spring Festival. It represent the auspicious and reunion. The shape of Chinese dumpling is similar to ancient Chinese gold or silver ingots, they symbolize wealth. Chinese dumpling is very delicious. You can make a variety of Chinese dumplings using different filling based on your taste and how various ingredients mixed together by you. Making dumpling is really teamwork .Usually all family members will join the work .Some people start to make dumplings when they were kids in the family, so most Chinese know how to make dumplings .

Tangyuan is the traditional food for the Lantern Festival or Yuanxiao Festival. The small dumpling balls are usually made of glutinous rice flour.

We call these balls yuanxiao or tangyuan. Obviously, they get the name from the festival itself. Made of sticky rice flour filled with sweet stuffing and round in shape, it symbolizes family unity, completeness and happiness.

The fillings inside the dumplings or yuanxiao are either sweet or salty. Sweet fillings are made of sugar, Walnuts, sesame, osmanthus flowers, rose petals, sweetened tangerine peel, bean paste, or jujube paste. A single ingredient or any combination can be used as the filling. The salty variety is filled with minced meat, vegetables or a mixture.

The way to make yuanxiao also varied between northern and southern China. The usual method followed in southern provinces is to shape the dough of rice flour into balls, make a hole, insert the filling, then close the hole and smooth out the dumpling by rolling it between your hands. In North China, sweet or non-meat stuffing is the usual ingredient. The fillings are pressed into hardened cores, dipped lightly in water and rolled in a flat basket containing dry glutinous rice flour. A layer of the flour sticks to the filling, which is then again dipped in water and rolled a second time in the rice flour. And so it goes, like rolling a snowball, until the dumpling is the desired size.

Zongzi is the festive food traditionally served during Dragon

Boat Festival celebrations.
During the Duanwu Festival, a glutinous rice pudding called zongzi is eaten to symbolize the rice offerings to Qu. Ingredients such as beans, lotus seeds, chestnuts, pork fat and the golden yolk of a salted duck egg are often added to the glutinous rice. The pudding is then wrapped with bamboo leaves, bound with a kind of raffia and boiled in salt water for hours.

There are many other traditional Chinese food like moon cake, rice cake, ice sugar ground and so on. Every kind of them will bring you wonderful experience.

Sweet potato as my sweetheart!

Whenever coming across any snack that contains sweet potato, I would seize the chance to taste those represented by my hometown.

He Yi 121105325 Class 4

There’s no doubt that Hangzhou is an incredibly beautiful city, yet the idea that one’s hometown is always the best place in the world perhaps has deeply rooted in our mind. Though it may seem kind of strange to foreigners, that’s what happens in China.

Brought up in a small county where sweet potatoes are grown here and there, I have got used to having sweet potato congee as breakfast since I’m a little child, but I would never believe this simple snack could mean that much to me before leaving my hometown for the campus I’m in now.

Attending college took me to a brand new journey compared to my past 18 years, and so does everybody else I suppose, which filled my life with a lot of exciting experiences at first, while as time flies, the thrilled feelings died away and homesickness began haunting and took up my heart.

Hence, whenever coming across some food relating to sweet potatoes, I would seize the opportunity to taste those snacks represented by my hometown. Now I’m going to tell you an interesting anecdote about it.

The other day I came across a bowl of sweet potato congee in a small restaurant of Xiasha(there’s a fantastic picture above demonstrating it); what’s dramatic is that I was recalled of my sweet memory at home immediately, to illustrate, I seemingly saw the scene of my warm-hearted grandma offering others with hot congees and preparing delicacies for me as well, which was actually the waitress handing out dishes and serving the customers around, then something awkward happened when I called out my little brother’s nickname loudly, due to the thought that I’m already at home. Of course everybody stopped to watch me as if I was nuts, which drove me blush at once.

Anyway, these special experiences did not get me out of sweet potatoes, if any, even added to my love of them for restoring those sweet old days to me. Therefore, it’s natural to draw the conclusion that sweet potatoes have become my sweetheart in reality.

Meanwhile, the main purpose of my writing this article is to call for your attention on the tremendous benefits that eating sweet potatoes will bring, because not only can it provide us with various nutrition, but arouse our appetite by its attractive appearance. Besides simple starches, raw sweet potatoes are rich in complex carbohydrates, dietary fiber and beta-carotene, while having moderate contents of other micronutrients, including vitamin B5, vitamin B6, and the like.

The following study may illustrate the incredible effect of sweet potatoes better for you.

A 2012 study of 10,000 households in Uganda found that 50% of children who ate normal sweet potatoes suffered from vitamin A deficiency compared with only 10% of those on the high beta carotene variety. Also, The?Center for Science in the Public Interest has compared the nutritional value of sweet potatoes to other foods. Considering fiber content, complex carbohydrates, protein, vitamin A and potassium, the sweet potato ranked highest in nutritional value.

The course of luxury

By Zeng Qianxin 130409109

With the rapidly development of globalization, the desire of material which is from the bottom of human’s hearts become more and more enormous. A word thus emerges, luxury.
In an area known as the luxury, people are likely to think of a famous brand, Louis Vuitton, at once. So let me take you to the wonderful Louis Vuitton’s kingdom that you guys will see this noble world in a blur.
Louis Vuitton, which was set up in 1854 in Paris, France, was founded by Louis Vuitton who was born in a poor village family. Because of the Second Empire in France, magnificent ball was popularizing in Paris. A majority of aristocratic lady wanted to find something to carry their gorgeous big dress more convenient, therefore, Louis Vuitton was born during this agitation. Mr. Vuitton invented a flat box with a handle with intelligent which replaced a large as well as heavier wooden box in the past. His box was not only durable and convenient to carry, but also brilliant and elegant, thus Louis Vuitton became hotter and hotter. Something to be mentioned, Eugenie de Montijo, the wife of Napoléon III, appreciated Vuitton’s rich talent, after that, she swore that she would just customize jewelry box from Louis Vuitton.
As more and more noble became Louis Vuitton’s VIP, Louis Vuitton became more and more famous, so he opened his first exclusive shop. In 1885,the first branch store held its open ceremony in London. But George, Louis’s son, made a top grade bags empire after the death of Louis Vuitton that made a legend in the area of bag.

Up to now, Louis Vuitton is still standing on the top of the bag empire without any hesitation. What’s more, Louis Vuitton is growing fiercely in a high speed.
As far as I am concerned, facing the global financial crisis, Louis Vuitton’s incumbent chief inspector should publish some plans to deal with this problem. For example, he can change some styles which is different with old style before. Because I think that Louis Vuitton is changeless. It can not only fresh the product style but also make customers’ eyes brightened. If there is no change, I don’t think that Louis Vuitton can get attention all the time.

Let Britpop Rock the UK and Beyond!

Radiohead

The London rock band Suede took home the Mercury Music Prize, Britain and Ireland's "album of the year" award, for its self-titled debut. It was Sept. 8, 1993. It capped a historic year for lead singer Brett Anderson and his bandmates, who in March had set a record for fastest-selling debut album in U.K. history. But the evening marked the beginning of something even bigger.After years of American grunge music riding roughshod over the British charts, Suede's success finally gave the U.K. music press a reason to flaunt the Union Jack again. Men and women who grew up on Beatles, Kinks and Who songs were ready for their own golden era of British pop — or, perhaps more accurately, their rebuke to grunge — and record labels were more than happy to oblige. They called it Britpop, a nebulous black hole of a genre that absorbed any British accent with a guitar from 1993 through 1997.

By: Li Erjiou 121105123 Class 4

Britpop is a subgenre of alternative rock that originated in the United Kingdom. Britpop emerged from the British independent music scene of the early 1990s and was characterized by bands influenced by British guitar pop music of the 1960s and 1970s. The movement developed as a reaction against various musical and cultural trends in the late 1980s and early 1990s, particularly the grunge phenomenon from the United States. Britpop groups brought British alternative rock into the mainstream and formed the backbone of a larger British cultural movement called Cool Britannia. Although, the movement largely fell apart by the end of the decade its most popular bands like Oasis and Blur were able to spread their commercial success overseas, especially to the United States. The Britpop had kept an everlasting and indisputable impact on the world's music history with quite a lot those still memorizing them since then.

Over time, Britpop's canon crystallized. A handful of elite bands (Suede, Blur, Oasis, Pulp, Elastica) transcended the tag, which lost some of its luster after Oasis released the bloated Be Here Now in 1997. Many of the musicians who climbed the charts in the mid-'90s are now essentially unknown to anyone under the age of 30. Some might argue that that's a good thing, a karmic correction that separated worthy artists from flavors of the month.

Britpop is far from forgotten, and was the soundtrack to many of our youthful heydays. From my perspective, everyone I knew who listened to Britpop had a wide variety of tastes, and often could be found at a club dancing to all those genres he loved so well. But while I loved getting lost in a trance beat as much as anyone, I needed my beautiful melodies as well, and none did smart, catchy pop better. As one of my friend said, the stupid earnestness of most American rock didn't speak to many of them; they needed some irony to cut the sentimental, some playfulness to balance the morose, and clever lyrics to weigh down the jauntiness.

A great time for music that has not been seen since. From indie band like Autuers and Blur, to electronic and dance acts (Saint Etienne, Chemical Brothers), Britpop was everywhere. Of course with that, bands were born into the scene, and the all-inclusive pool was quickly diluted.

That was the power of Britpop – they had complete control of Britain's mainstream, and in 1997 they drove it into the ground. Nothing like that happened again in Britain in the wake of Britpop. We're left with shards in the new millennium, with Radiohead and Bloc Party and Kaiser Chiefs and Editors jostling around together. And that's before you even get to any other English imports, like Amy Winehouse or Adele. Maybe it is indeed better off this way, to have to navigate the big mess of it. After all, if you listen to all those last great Britpop albums, it sounds like universality took its toll.
