

Met love on the road

The attraction of travel not only because the landscape but also the unexpected surprise happened on the travel . Two girls met their love in the journey, how amazing it is! Do you wonder know much more about this? Just look forward to my story! You can always heard about or meet such kind of people whose aims are not to travel a specific sightseeing spot including taking some “traveler pictures” but are fond of going to whatever they walking on and traveling some places that don't know by many people .And they can always meet the unexpected surprises .So, are you such kind of people?

Jia Shi 130907245 Class Two

Ann and Ella belong to that kind of people ,and with the coming of the spring ,they began a travel without planning ,take leave without delay . Surprise, they met the unexpected surprises, do you want to know what's that? Let me tell you their stories.

With the coming of spring, the weather is getting warm, so Ann and Ella started a travel without planning, they went to a beautiful town called WuZhen which was voted to be one of the most beautiful towns in south of China.

On the bus to WuZhen, there were so many people that Ann and

Ella were standing uncomfortable . Beside them there were three boys, they were also go to WuZhen, they were outgoing□young and handsome. They were talking and laughing happily, suddenly the bus stopped out of imagine, Ann and Ella rushed to the head of the bus and hit two people. Without these two people ,two poor girl must be felled. When they looked up and want to say thank you ,they found the two boys looked at them too. With a little bit awkward ,they know each other ,a boy named Justin and one called Taylor and one called Leo. This is just a small episode, so the travel began!

Ann and Ella had a good time taking some interesting photos, absolutely unforgettable! Then they were so hungry that came to eat noodles, at that time ,there were a little bit crowded because it was already 6:30 .Luckily, Ann and Ella had a seat, but not so luckily to Taylor and Justin and little Leo, there were no other choice, the only thing they could do is sharing a table with strangers. Surprise, the “strangers” were Ann and Ella, it’s the second time boys and girls met. What is more incredible, the three boys were in the same school with the girls. then the journey becomes particularly meaningful and interesting because boys and girls finally decided travel together!

Then a lot of fascinating experience happened to them such as Ann was missed on the way, so others people went everywhere to find her .At last, Justin find her at a ice cream store and ate ice cream with Ann. They had a very happy time telling something about their friends and experience and so on ,then they fall in love to each other! What a surprise !

The other day is a rainy day ,but the boys had no umbrella, and because at that time Ann and Justin had already fall in love with each other, so they used one umbrella Here comes troubles! Only an umbrella was left ,but there were two boys, so how Ella to choose her partner? At last Ella chose Taylor, the boy she hit on the bus, and as a result ,they fall in love to each other too! How poor Leo was, he was still single!

Above all, that's Ann and Ella's trip, they met their on the way!See what? You can meet love on the road!So just travel out!