1. concealer

The first step of all: Apply a with SPF to help concealer glide on smoothly. Then, apply your brightening concealer by dotting it in a line under your eye, starting at the inner corner and working to the outer edge of your eye. "Choosing a shade lighter is a myth," makeup master Ritzier says, the "Too-white circles under your eyes look like you wore goggles while tanning." Apply in little stripes with a pointed concealer brush. Then blend using your ring finger for the lightest touch, and don't tug on delicate under eye areas, she instructs.

2. foundation

To get perfectly even skin the speedy way, use a foundation stick. First, you use your fingers to dab the product in 4 spots on your face. Then use the brush to blend it. On your forehead, brush back and forth. On your cheeks, brush down and away from the centre of your face. And on your chin, also brush back and forth.

3. eye

To get bigger brighter eyes, you should start with a “bone” coloured shadow and cover you entire lid. If you have a fluffy shadow brush, use that, but you can just used your finger too. Then pick a taupe colour and use a denser shadow brush to dab, not sweep. For more intensity, use an eyelash curler before you apply mascara, then put on one layer of your favourite mascara.

4. lip

The final step is the one that most of us skip to right away: filling our lips with our chosen colour! you can use pink colour lipstick straight from the tube, apply it to the centre of your mouth. Blend the lipstick out over your lips, patting the colour on with your fingertip to help it last. Ta – da, you're done!
