It seems that Guizhou is pregnant with the unique customs of minorities and hands down its original ecology because of the silence and peace. And also it brings people a colorful landscape, the culture of Yelang and Miao minority, Karst scenery, wine and gong tea and so on are all unique in China, wherever you go, Guizhou is the only place for you to enjoy these wonderful things.

Huangguoshu Waterfall

There is no need to give a brief introduction of Huangguoshu Waterfall, in other words, no word can describe such a wonder perfectly. As a saying goes, "He who has never been to the Great Wall is not a true man." It also applies to the waterfall. Huangguoshu Waterfall is of great momentum and has warm blood in the Yunnan-Guizhou Plateau. It is the King of waterfalls without a doubt and it belongs to Guizhou.

Huangguoshu Waterfall is one of the most famous waterfalls in the world, it's a kind of giant and rare waterfalls in the karst region and is located in east longitude 105 ° 41 ', north latitude 25 ° 55 '. From the white water river, part of dabang river basin, it connects north and south, when it arrived at huangguoshu, a large longitudinal slope shaped Huangguoshu Waterfall, the water after falls around west, an approximate semicircle arc chord lengths 500 meters, out west 300 meters, upon reaching the water rushed the beaches of the screw, the flow of recovery from north to south.

Xijiang Miao Village

Xijiang Miao Village is 36000 meters northwest of Leishan, in Qiandongnan Miao and Dong Autonomous Prefecture, Guizhou province, China. There lives the Miao's lineage. Thousands of houses are standing door-to-door, surrounded by many hills, alongside them are layers of terraced fields. In addition, you will see the village is divided into two parts by White River. All these things become a beautiful scenery line. Can you feel being there?

Several stilted buildings were built tier upon tier in the village, which has become a feature, and decorated by bamboos. It usually has three floors and basements of it are often cobble stone and green stone. The first floor is for domestic animals, the second floor is for people to live and the third floor is used to store food crops. When you are invited to a house, you are lucky enough to watch a Miao girl doing embroidery with patience in a long bench. People call it "a beauty against the bench". Walking in the quartzite on the road, you will smell a scent from maple tree rows.
