liji

When you walk into liji, you will find that there are many people queuing. There are two flavors of pineapple cakes in Liji. One is the traditional pineapple cake, made of high quality pineapple. Another is the soil pineapple, which tasted more acid. Liji is best known for its crust. The crust exudes baked smell for a long time. Now, liji also opened the store in Shanghai, the people do not have to go to Taiwan to buy the pineapple cake purposely.

Sunnyhills

Sunnyhills is a new brand, its packaging is very cute. Sunnyhills's pineapple cake is rectangular, and it is larger than normal pineapple cake. It is said that pineapple's stuffing all brewed, and do not add any additives. But it is worth noting that the filling fiber of Sunnyhill's pineapple cake is very thick, and the orderly is best not to eat.

Jiade

Jiade regarded as a rising star, he did not emphasize its pineapple selection, but stressed that its pastry using New Zealand dairy products as raw materials. The pastry of Jiade is very crisp, unlike other brands of pineapple cakes so easy dregs. But the taste don't have very prominent feature, so I can hardly remember what it is the biggest advantage.

However, Jiade is the most popular brand for mainland tourists.

Dawn

Personally, Dawn is my favorite pineapple cake. At first, I was attracted by Dawn's package. It's looks like a book. When I went to Taiwan to be an exchange student, most Taiwan students told me that their favorite pineapple cake is the Dawn. Moreover, pineapple cake of Dawn only can buy from Taichung, many people spend several hours rush to Taichung, just for a pineapple cake. In addition, Dawn's service staffs are very warm. When people visit the Dawn, they will give visitor a piece of pineapple cake to taste. Besides pineapple cakes, dawn have delicious Cheese Cake and ice cream, so that customers have a variety of selection.

Yuzhen House

Yuzhen House, just as its website, was born in 1877. The head office of Yuzhen is located in Lukang. Yuzhen House's product is very suitable for the elderly. Because he'd thin pastry, filling very rich and moderate sweetness. In many people’s views, Yuzhen House’s Phoenix cake is more delicious than pineapple cake. The Phoenix cake is adding egg yolk into the stuffing in the pineapple cake, which is soft and sweet.
