Three killed is a very popular game ,so many people like it. Each player's turn can be divided into six stages, starting stage, decision stage, touch a card, a card, discard phase, end of turn. And if all the thieves and spy be killed, then the game is over. Now I'd like to introduce the rules of the game .Three killed is one of the most famous game in board games.Now let's describe the characteristics of Three killed games. It's a period from Chinese history. Identity system is the main features of the game .A total of 4 kinds of identity: master, the thief, loyal, dirty agent. Master and turn-cromwell's task is to destroy the thief, remove the dirty agent; The task of the thief is to overthrow the tetrarch. Mole are there on the pitch when the other characters other than the master to clear the other characters, finally the single master. The game randomly selected, give each player a identity card. Except the master □the others identity of the card cannot be show to other players. Each player to remove their identity, but also need to play one of The Three Kingdoms period military commanders. Each warrior has exclusive warrior skill, these skills from name to role are ability, character and design according to the military commanders. It is a blend of historical elements, elements of literature, art element, social elements, healthy element.

As for me,I like to play three kingdoms kill, but I am not a master of board games. There are about six or seven people to play that day, I catch the traitor,I play the role of Big Joe. I used to play three kingdoms kill just to protect the first spy of the dead. No matter how much I loyal minister master will be hacked to death the first time, so I think this game is too boring for me that I don't want to play again. The man to master is a master of three killed, all the way smoothly and master cut away all the thief, and Lord actually think of me as a loyal, I cut with real loyalist, smooth the loyal minister in the end. I chop down dead, and then mastered the global . Then, as if god wish me a helping hand,I killed the lord,I won at last. This is my only a victory as a spy.So I'm very happy and from then on I like the Three Killed very much.Do you think Three Killed is an interesting game?Anyway, I think so.
